Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the outwardly facing surface of the second covering facilitating sliding of the door thereover during the hinged movement of the door as recited in claim 10, lines 17-19, must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 4, 5, 6, 8, and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Iwasa (Patent No. 5,123,988). As shown in Figure 4, Iwasa ('988) discloses a U-shaped weatherstrip having a mounting portion (the solid u-shaped material portion), and an open cell foam portion (the tubular portion extending from the U-shaped portion), a first layer (either layer 7 or 8 which are adhesive closed cell layers), and a second layer (9) formed onto the first layer along a portion of the open foam cell portion and the mounting portion of the weatherstrip and the second layer having a coefficient of friction lower than that of first layer (either layer 7 or 8).

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Iwasa (Patent No. 5,123,988) in view of Iwasa (Patent No. 5,143,772). All of the elements of the instant invention are discussed in detail above except providing the second coating to be of a plastic or rubber material (claim 2) and the second layer extruded onto the first layer (process step in claim 9). Iwasa (Patent No. 5,143,772) discloses two layers (89 and 87) extruded onto a weatherstrip wherein the outer/second layer (87) is formed of a rubber material (column 8, lines 36-37). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to provide Iwasa ('988) with a rubber material extruded on the weatherstrip as taught by Iwasa ('772) since a second layer formed of rubber provides a more durable outer coating and to extrude the second layer thereto provides a more integral weatherstrip.

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 2, 4-6, and 8-10 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
